They shall be designated as "Trustees of Superannuate Homes ofDistrict, North Mississippi Conference, M. E. Church, South,"

5th, At each quarterly conference, under the question as to miscellaneous business, the question shall be asked: "What has been done during the present quarter for superannuate homes?" and the pastor shall include these matters in his written report to the Annual Conference; each home to be reported by the pastor within the limits of whose charge it is located.

Memoirs.

PERRY EMORY DUNCAN.

Perry Emory Duncan, the son of Dr. B. A. and Mrs. C. S. Duncan, was born Nov. 8, 1863, near West Point, Miss. He was reared amid excellent social environments. He had also superior educational advantages. His education beginning in Aberdeen, Miss., was continued at Webb's School in Tennessee. After completing his course there, he was for sometime a student in Vanderbilt University. During the pastorate of Rev. John H. Scruggs at Aberdeen in a revival, conducted by Rev. L. D. Worsham, he professed faith in Christ and joined the Methodist Church and grew up into a cultured, Christian young manhood of rare excellence and beauty. He was licensed to preach, while at Webb's School, April 17, 1880, being then in his seventeenth year.

In his earlier manhood, he was threatened with serious pulmonary trouble and it may have been on this account that he remained for some years in the local ranks. In December, 1893, at Columbus, Miss., he was admitted on trial into the North Mississippi Conference, and ordained deacon at the same Conference session by Bishop Hargrove, Dec. 3. He was ordained Elder by Bishop Wilson, at Oxford, Dec. 12, 1897.

He was happily married to Miss Mary Lee Smith of West Point, April 15, 1891. His home life was beautiful, marked by the gentle and kindly spirit that ever characterized him. After a protracted sickness, he died of pneumonia, at Iuka, Feb. 9, 1905. The next day his funeral, at West Point, was attended by leading representatives of Iuka Church, thirteen members of the North Mississippi Conference and a large company of old friends.

Brother Duncan was a faithful and diligent pastor. He served with great acceptability and success, Cedar Bluff, Coldwater, Crawford and Iuka charges. His preaching was of a style peculiar to himself. His sermons, carefully prepared, gave evidence of a cultured mind and loving heart. They were instructive, persuasive and winning. He left his impress for good upon the people whom he served.

But one short year ago, our now glorified brother was with us, joyful in his loved employ, full of hope, and promise of usefulness. His cordial handgrasp, his words of cheerful greeting and the smile that played upon his countenance told of the earnest soul within, and of the loving spirit that animated his breast. We sadly miss him from our delightful conference associations and fellowship. And although no last words tell us of the closing scene, yet such a life as was his, bears assuring testimony that it is well with our brother.

Rev. L. D. Worsham says, "He was certainly a man of God." Dr. J. D. Cameron, who was his pastor four years, says: "He wielded an influence for good in his own community (West Point) such as I never knew any young man to have. I was not surprised on taking charge of Iuka station, as his successor, to find the abundant fruit of his godly life and labors." Rev. J. A. Bowen closes his memoir with these appropriate words: "The North Mississippi Conference is strong because he was one of us. The world is richer because he lived and served. His close walk with God is expressed by the Psalmist, 'Thy gentleness hath made me great.' His devoted and bereaved companion, and the promising little children, his father and all the relatives, have the abiding sympathy of all our preachers and people."

WILLIAM D. BURROUGHS.

William D. Burroughs, son of William and Paulina Burroughs, was born at Tampa, Miss., March 18, 1863. He died at his post of duty in the parsonage at Ebenezer, Miss., March 6, 1905. During his school days, he was pious, studious and godly in all his bearing and deportment toward his fellows. He won and ever held the esteem and friendship of all his mates. His gentleness, tenderness and truthfulness caused him to be loved of all who knew him. He was a man of character and worth, and his influence among his college mates was for good. On April 14, 1891, Brother Burroughs was happily married to Miss Della Shumaker. She and two bright children remain to mourn their loss.

Brother Burroughs was licensed to preach in 1885; was admitted on trial in the North Mississippi Conference, at Macon, Miss., in December, 1891. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Hargrove at Columbus, Miss., in December, 1893, and also admitted to full connection by the same Conference; was ordained elder by Bishop Fitzgerald at Water Valley, Miss., in December, 1895. He served the following charges: 1892, East Holly Springs circuit; 1893, Ashton circuit; 1894, Water Valley circuit; 1895-96, Charleston circuit; 1897, Hillhouse circuit; 1898-99, Pleasant Hill circuit; 1900, Guntown circuit; 1901, Nettleton circuit. In 1902-4 he held the superannuated relation on account of bad health, having contracted malarial troubles, which for two years threatened his life. During this time he was a great and constant sufferer, and despaired of ever entering again upon the active work of his Lord. While patiently waiting and suffering, he did what he could to support his little family and regain his strength for his Master's use. During the year 1904 his health so far improved as to flatter him with the promise of long years of usefulness in the itinerant ranks, but, like many of the promises of life, it was soon to be broken. At the Conference held in Kosciusko, in December, 1904, he appeared with a happy face and sanguine spirit, and assumed his former active relation to the Conference, and was appointed by Bishop Galloway to Ebenezer circuit. He at once moved his family, and heartily entered his labors with hopeful outlook. He had scarcely made more than one round upon the work when he was stricken with pneumonia. It was a severe case, and speedily did its work. He and his physician and family nobly fought it, but in less than a week his spirit went home to the God who gave it. He passed away in the full confidence and peace of Christian faith. He trusted and believed and toiled and suffered, and when his work was done, went home. Brother Burroughs was an upright, good man; simple-hearted, plain, candid, unassuming, genuine; an Israelite indeed, in whom was no guile. God's grace and comfort and peace be with his loved ones till they see him face to face.

L. M. LIPSCOMB.

REV. JAMES A. LEECH.

From the labors and toils of his consecrated ministry in the Master's kingdom the subject of this sketch passed to his heavenly reward on May 22, 1905. The summons came after a brief illness. It found him at his post of duty, where, for twenty-two years, amid stress and storm, sunshine and cloud, he had stood, brave, earnest, active and true, thinking, planning, praying and pushing the battle for a great and sweeping revival all over his loved pastoral charge. It came at the mid-day of his noble and useful life, while the flush of health, hope, and promise mantled his brow, and spoke of victories for truth and righteousness greater than any he had yet won in his Master's name. Death sped to its mark; the soldier of the Cross fell on the whitened field with a song of victory on his lips. His was a triumphant and glorious conquest over the last enemy, and an abundant entrance into life eternal. He was happy as could be in contemplation of his approaching release. He saw it, welcomed it, and met it as did his Lord, and was with him more than conqueror. He said, just a little while before his tongue was speechless in death: "I used to think death was a terror, but it is peace. Oh, how easy and sweet it is to die!" Then, in a moment, his heart-broken wife saw his lips move in an effort to speak, and heard him faintly say: "Bring them all with you!" She supposed, perhaps, his mind was wandering, and asked him what he said, and he repeated: "Bring all the children with you to heaven when you come!" This peaceful, ascending soul had seen all the road to a throne of glory clear and shining as a sapphire wall; then he thought of himself and his journey no more, but, turning his mind and soul upon the dear, loved ones left behind, his last earthly thoughts were of them. Pleasant must have been the pathway, easy the shining road up from this dim twilight into the light of God. The glorious, triumphant ascension was but the natural result of a life hid, through years of companionship, with Christ in God. Brother Leech lived what he preached, and died in absolute knowledge of its truth.

James Alexander Leech, son of Rev. A. P. and Sophronia Leech, was born on Dec. 5, 1855, near Columbus, Miss. His sainted mother preceded him to the heavenly world by more than a year. His honored and sorrowing father is a superannuated member of the North Mississippi Conference. His early life was blessed with the teaching and example of religion. The first sounds and sights of his infantile life were the sweet songs of Zion and the family altar, the daily worship and the happy experiences of grace. His education was received in the common schools of his day, but, with broad common sense, a strong native intellect, coupled with keen desire for knowledge and unflagging application, he became a well-informed man, and a strong, forceful preacher. On Jan. 24, 1878, he was happily married to Miss Agnes M. Beal at Sturgis, Miss. Of this union, ten children were born—five boys and five girls—of whom four boys and four girls, with the noble mother, still survive to mourn their irreparable loss.

Brother Leech was a devoted son, an ideal husband, true, affectionate father. As a man, he was strong, brave, generous, and warm-hearted. He was radically converted in a revival at Starkville, Miss., in 1872, and united with the M. E. Church, South. After this, for some years he followed the life of a railroad man, becoming successively fireman and engineer. In August, 1882, he was licensed to preach, and in the following November was admitted on trial into the North Mississippi Conference; was received into full connection in December, 1884; ordained deacon by Bishop Keener at the same Conference; ordained elder Dec. 5, 1886, at West Point, Miss.; by Bishop Duncan, and filled the following appointments: 1883, Webster mission; 1884, Noxubee circuit; 1885-88, Louisville circuit; 1889, Mount Pleasant circuit; 1890 and '91, Byhalia circuit; 1892 and '93, Louisville circuit; 1894, principal Louisville Normal School; 1895, Eupora circuit; 1896-98, Brooksville circuit; 1899, Minter City and Strathmore circuit; 1900-02, Okolona station; 1903-04, Black Hawk circuit. At the Kosciusko Conference, in December, 1904, he was appointed by Bishop Galloway to Pickens circuit. Within a few days after the adjournment of the Conference he and his happy family were in the parsonage at Pickens, and the faithful servant of the Lord had entered hopefully and joyfully upon his year's work. The year opened and proceeded with great success till the shepherd was taken from the flock, the sower from the field.

Brother Leech loved his fellow-men, and loved to preach. His preaching was practical, strong, logical, and moving. I have seen people, under the mighty spell of his messages, break into tears of penitence and hallelujahs of joy. He said, just before he left us, "I have been so happy all day, I could hardly stay in the flesh." He is gone, but we know where to find him.

L. M. LIPSCOMB.

William R. Rainey, son of William and Mary Rainey, was born June 17, 1828, in Green County, Ala., converted and joined the M. E. Church, South, July 27, 1847, licensed to preach Aug. 22, 1852; admitted on trial (Mississippi Conference), at Brandon, December, 1857; admitted into full connection, December, 1859. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Early, December, 1847; elder by Bishop Paine at Canton, Miss., December, 1861.

He served the following charges: 1858-60, Honey Island Mission (negroes); 1861, Webster circuit; 1862, Louisville circuit; 1863, Philadelphia circuit; 1864, Webster circuit; 1865-66, Oktibbeha circuit; 1867-68, Bankston circuit; 1869, Supernumerary; 1870-72, Line Creek circuit; 1873, Supernumerary; 1874-75, LaGrange circuit; 1876, Chester circuit; 1877-78, Webster circuit; 1879-80, Supernumerary; 1881, Starkville circuit; 1882-83, LaGrange circuit; 1884, Chester circuit; 1885, Starkville circuit; 1886, La Grange circuit; 1887, Tampico; 1888, LaGrange circuit; 1889-90, Superannuated; 1891, Maben circuit; 1892-1905, Superannuated.

Brother Rainey came into our Conference by the location of its boundaries in 1870. He was a faithful minister of the Gospel for over fifty years, meeting all obligations imposed upon him by the Church he loved so well. He was a useful and popular pastor and was often called upon to officiate at marriages and funerals. He had only a common school education, yet he was an interesting preacher, often arousing great enthusiasm in his congregations. He was a revivalist after the old style, and many were converted and brought into the church through his ministry. He died triumphantly and rests in peace.

Reports.

SPIRITUAL INTEREST.

After listening to the reports of presiding elders and pastors, we rejoice in the fact that our Church is not only alive but spiritual. Our preachers in their work preach the importance of deep spirituality, and our people gladly receive the message.

While the year has not been signalized by great revivals, yet almost every charge reports conversions and additions to the Church; and while we were not able to gather definite statistics, yet the numbers ran up into the thousands.

We are glad to note too that many of our children come right out of the Sunday school into the Church, and this without the aid of protracted meetings. We urge upon the pastors to help make the Sunday school more and more of such character as to lead the children to Christ and into the Church.

There are evidences of increased spirituality. We have better churches and parsonages; our pastoral charges are multiplying and our members living more righteously. We have good reasons too, to believe that our young people are less worldly and more willing to do the work of the church. We rejoice in this belief. There is peace within our borders.

But we must not rest here. The great foe of the Church is yet alive and active. Especially in some parts of our territory the spirit of gambling in cotton futures has a hold upon the people. We have thousands of people who would not be swept down by this, any more than by acknowledged gambling, yet there is great temptation to it, because the commercial world calls it respectable and legitimate. Therefore, it behooves us as pastors to be wide awake, to point out the dangers, and use our influence both in the pulpit and out of it to warn our people against this great and ruinous wickedness. At the same time to realize more and more our great need of the light, and guidance and power of the Holy Spirit.

EDUCATION.

Vanderbilt University.

We rejoice to know that this great institution is prospering in spite of the recent heavy loss by fire. This misfortune has served to arouse the sympathy, and awaken the interest of our people. New buildings are being erected, and we believe the University will soon be better equipped than ever before. The professional and literary departments are maintaining a high standard, and the theological department is increasing its usefulness, and popularity by matriculating students of only ordinary educational qualifications, for such work as they are prepared to prosecute successfully.

The Correspondence School.

This great work is no longer an experiment. With courses of study for graduates, and under-graduates, Biblical Institutes, Lecture Courses, and a proposed extension Library, it is helping hundreds of busy, hard pressed itinerants. A number of members of our own Conference have profited by its instruction, and examining committees report its students to have a vastly better knowledge of their work than those who have prosecuted their studies in the usual way. We again urge our young preachers to take up this work, and recommend that assistance be given in paying the tuition fee of $10.00 in cases of need. We commend the correspondence course on the Life of Christ, to those laymen, who wish to teach successfully the Sunday school lessons for the coming year.

Millsaps College.

Your Board has heard with great pleasure the report of the President of Millsaps College setting forth the needs, and indicating the great prosperity which our college is now enjoying. Because of the prevailing quarantine regulations, the College did not open until the first of November, but notwithstanding this hindrance, the enrollment has already reached 220. Of this number 43 are the sons of ministers, and young men preparing for the ministry. Two of the ministerial students are from the bounds of this Conference. It is gratifying to know that our young preachers are seeking the very best scholastic training before entering upon the great work of preaching the gospel. It is a cause for deep gratitude, that $25,000.00 have been added to the endowment fund, $12,500.00 from the sale of the East Mississippi Female College property, and $12,500.00 from Major Millsaps. The productive endowment now amounts to $131,000.00. The buildings and grounds are valued at $112,000.00 and $9,400.00 is invested in scholarships. The greatest need of the College at the present time is a larger income. The present income is entirely inadequate to meet the growing needs of our great school. The state schools, the immediate competitors of Millsaps College, are liberally provided for, while our college is dependent upon the Church for its support. Recognizing the imperative need of a larger endowment, the Board of Trustees at their last meeting authorized Bishop Galloway and Dr. Murrah to raise an additional $100,000.00. According to the report made to this Board by the President of the College, when $20,000.00 shall have been raised by the Church in Mississippi, $50,000.00 will be made immediately available. We urge therefore, upon this Conference, a hearty, and prompt response to this call, from our school. Let the pastors give these representatives of the College the right of way in their charges. We recommend the re-election of T. W. Lewis, R. A. Meek, and J. B. Streater, as members of the Board of Trustees, their term of office expiring with this session of our Conference and we recommend the election of S. T. Harkey to succeed J. C. Kyle. We also respectfully ask the re-appointment of Dr. W. B. Murrah to the presidency of our College.

Grenada College.

We are pleased to receive from the Board of Trustees of Grenada College so favorable a report. Its splendid faculty, its most efficient organization, its higher scholastic requirements, its excellent student body, show its increasing power as a factor in those great forces, which are to transform humanity. We point with pride to the product of its institution as the evidence of its superiority and the justification for its existence. We commend the fixed policy of the Board, and the Faculty, to do high grade, honest, work. We concur with the expressed wish of the Board delivered in the following words, "to do the real work of a high college course, the College should be endowed." We, therefore, direct the Board of Trustees to enter upon the work of creating an endowment fund for Grenada College.

We recommend the election of the following as Trustees of Grenada College: J. C. Park, J. A. Bowen, H. C. Morehead, J. H. Fraiser, Dr. W. T. Johnson and H. K. Borwick.

Referring to a paper referred to us from the Tennessee Conference, touching the establishment of a "high grade woman's college, for Southern Methodism," we ask the appointment of the following committee: Clerical—Dr. W. B. Murrah, J. A. Bowen, R. A. Meek, W. W. Woollard, and T. W. Lewis; Lay members—J. R. Bingham, F. A. Critz, W. H. Smith, J. G. McGowan and W. L. Clifton.

Your Board recommend that the first Sunday in March be observed as "Education Day," and have appointed E. S. Lewis, and W. H. Smith, committee, to prepare program for the use of pastors in the observance of the same.

Respectfully submitted,

R. O. BROWN, Secy. of the Board.

TEMPERANCE,

We rejoice to know that Mississippi is almost a unit on prohibition, so far as the legal sale of liquor is concerned. Out of the 76 counties of the State only about ten license the sale of liquor. And of these only two are within the bounds of the North Mississippi Conference. We are confident that the temperance sentiment is increasing, not only in Mississippi, but all over the United States. This increasing growth of temperance sentiment is clearly manifested in many places in Mississippi where the people, have united in concerted efforts to suppress the bringing in of intoxicating liquors in C. O. D. packages; and we most heartily approve and indorse all lawful efforts, both in and out of the courts, to suppress this most pernicious of all the methods heretofore invented for debauching the people of our State. And we most respectfully commend in advance any change of our state statutes which will further help by properly adjusted punishments to prevent whisky drummers from soliciting within the dry territory of our State either single or continuing orders for liquor.

We most heartily approve of all measures now pending in the Congress of the United States which are designed to prevent shipments of liquor from one state into dry territory in another state. We earnestly indorse all like efforts to prevent the sale of U. S. liquor license in prohibition territory in any state, as well as all efforts by statute to secure the utmost publicity in the sale and use of U. S. liquor license, by compelling internal revenue agents and other officers of the general government to produce in the courts, when lawfully called upon by courts or grand juries, their records which contain the names of those persons to whom liquor licenses have been issued.

In the meantime we urge the exercise of continuous moral suasion in the homes and schools and pulpits of all our people and we heartily approve of the course of instruction in our public schools which is designed to warn the rising generation of the deadly effects of alcoholic drinks upon the physical and intellectual natures of all people.

J. T. LEWIS, for the Committee.

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

It is gratifying to your Board to report that thirteen new Epworth Leagues have been organized within our bounds during the past year. We now have thirty-one Senior Leagues and twenty Junior Luagees, making a total of fifty-one as against thirty-eight last year.

The Epworth League occupies a distinct and definite place in the field of religious activity. It furnishes the best opportunity to our young people for the development and exercise of their powers as the servants of Christ.

Multitudes of our choicest young men and young women have been sinned against in the neglect of their religious education, and they are perishing for lack of knowledge. They have listened to the wooings of the world until its charms have led them into those amusements and dissipations which paralyze all religious life and destroy all religious character

The Epworth League has come to the kingdom at a fortunate time in our history. Wealth and wordliness threaten the destruction of our purest and best ideals, and the League has set its hand to the herculean task of assisting in checking this evil tendency by training our young people for service. We must recognize that in the present condition of affairs the only remedy for laxity of morals is industrious activity in religious service. A mere negative religion whose obligations depend upon the enforcement of a command without a call and an opportunity for appropriate service is no longer influential among many of our young people. The Epworth League seeks to give adequate training through its several departments by which our young people may become intelligent and efficient in the work of our Lord. The Epworth League Conference held at Starkville last June was a decided success. Seventy-five delegates were present, and many of our best young people were there to participate in its deliberations.

The Epworth Era has made steady gains in its subscription list during the past year, its mechanical appearance is very much improved and today it is the leading young people's periodical of the South. It has over twenty thousand subscribers, and it is hereby commended to all our people.

Young People's Day was observed by a number of pastors with gratifying results.

We suggest that our pastors observe Easter Sunday or some Sunday as near thereto as practicable as Young People's Day.

This Board most respectfully urges upon all of our pastors the importance of organizing the young people into Epworth Leagues. Let them assist in bringing up the Conference collections and put into their hands the work of charity to be done by the Church, and they will awaken into new life.

Respecting the paper referred to us by the Conference on the subject of mid-year meetings, your Board heartily endorses the plan, and hereby appoints T. W. Lewis and B. P. Jaco as its representatives on the Committee.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

We are glad to report that the cause of Church Extension is keeping pace with the growth and increasing activities of all Church work.

Of the 521 churches reported in the Conference last year 227 have received aid from the Board.

In extending help in the building of churches at home and abroad, we are obeying what is implied in the great commission, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." Church extension is missionary work—both Home and Foreign.

In our judgment the lack of interest in many of our congregations is due to the indifference of their pastors in failing to emphasize its importance. Sixteen pastors of the North Mississippi Conference discriminated against this Board last year in their distribution of Conference collections.

Just at this time there are reasons that this work should receive special attention. A large area of territory lying within the bounds of this Conference is now being rapidly developed. New towns are springing up and the country is becoming thickly populated. If our Church competes successfully with other denominations in the Delta country, she must build houses of worship. In many instances the building of houses will settle the question as to who will be in the ascendancy for years to come.

Again, as has been emphasized on this floor several times during this Conference, one of the greatest needs of our Mission fields is more chapels.

In view of these facts we earnestly insist that Church Extension receive due attention by our pastors and not less than its pro rata of the Conference collections.

No report from the Woman's Home Mission Society has been referred to us.

REPORT OF AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Of the $1,200.00 assessment made against the several charges for the support of the American Bible Society, there has been paid the sum of $912.97.

We commend this great institution for its effort to furnish the Holy Scriptures in all languages. We are grateful for its success.

For many years the North Mississippi Conference has levied an assessment for the support of the American Bible Society. Our people have responded to this assessment with the same liberality that has characterized their support of other missionary enterprises.

We recommend an assessment of $1,200.00 for the ensuing year.

Submitted.,

J. E. CUNNINGHAM, for the Board.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The New Orleans Christian Advocate.

The report of the editor shows a net loss in circulation of sixty-five. Dr. Boswell gives three reasons for this loss: 1st. The yellow fever; 2d. The conceded fact that the mechanical make up of the paper has been unsatisfactory; 3rd. The demand for a cheaper church paper. We believe that these suggestions are well founded. The editor has made arrangements with Mr. C. C. Chalmers to take charge of the business management and promises a decided improvement in press work. Dr. Boswell promises also to make a reduction in the price of subscription in the near future; so we think it is better to make no change as to this paper, at least until the expiration of our three years' contract.

Dr. J. W. Boswell has done most faithful and efficient work as editor, and we recommend his re-appointment. We recommend for appointment as Publishing Committee: W. T. J. Sullivan, J. T. Murrah and W. W. Woollard

Since the last report, which came up to March 1st, 1904, the fiscal year has been so changed as to end December 31st, and, hence, this report covers but nine months.

"The Branch House in Dallas continues to increase in volume of business done and in profits therefrom." Its business is included in the above totals.

In the language of our last report, we say, "the very efficient and successful management of these great institutions, by our agents, as thus shown, deserves the most emphatic commendation of the whole church."

The Quarterly Review.

The Quarterly Review is a first class Church magazine, and those who take and read it, will find in every number the very best thought of some of the masters in theology, philosophy, science and literature. It deserves the patronage of all the preachers and laymen of the Southern Church, but should not be limited to these. There is no reason why such a periodical as this should not be passed into the hands of all classes of readers who appreciate a high order of magazine literature.

The Epworth Era is a most excellent periodical, and has a fine influence upon the young people who read it. It is ably edited and well adapted to the needs it is intended to meet.

The Children's Visitor is a fine paper for the little ones. Sweet, attractive and instructive, and may be read with profit by the older ones

Our Sunday School literature is all good, very good, from the picture cards to the magazine. We wish it the largest possible circulation. Our people should use nothing else.

We note with pleasure that our agents promise "to make marked improvements in the mechanical features of the Epworth Era and of our Sunday School periodicals in the near future."

The Christian Advocate ranks with the very best weekly papers in the land, and among church papers there is nothing stronger. It is ably edited and full of attractive and instructive matter.

This paper is expected to be one of the highest exponents of Methodist thought, polity, and doctrine; and every page, column and line should manifest or be consistent with the Bible Oorthodoxy. Let us all hold up the hands of the editor in his effort to reach these ideals.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We recommend the following appropriations for the ensuing year: $50.00 to the needy schools, to be used in the discretion of the Agent of the Board, on the recommendation of the pastors of the schools; $100 00 for the purchase of Children's Day programs, the same to be purchased and distributed under the supervision of the Agent of the Board.

Rev. R. P. Neblett, the Agent of the Board, has made a detailed report of his work to the Board and will report the same here. The Board was able, much to its regret and loss, to obtain his service for but a portion of the year. He has visited thirty-five pastoral charges, done work in forty-five communities, made fifty-nine public addresses and has generally strengthened the work in each place, where he was especially desired and permitted to go.

The annual institute for Sunday School workers was projected to be held at Greenwood, but was so obstructed by the quarantine that it was felt wise to abandon the effort for this year. As a probable substitute, Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Hamill were secured for two services at this Conference, and it is hoped that their encouraging words, wise counsel, and hopeful utterances will reach every nook and corner of the Conference through the pastors and members in attendance.

The Board by analysis and inquiry has made searching investigation of the work of the Rev. R. P. Neblett, the agent. We have been convinced that the cause needed special, trained, and systematic management. We now feel that the plan thrice tried by this Board is no longer an experiment. It is the plan of the Board to deal individually with each church in the Conference, working through the pastor and presiding elder, and to exact of each church that it respond to the demands of the hour and meet the responsibility imposed upon it by God and the commonwealth in raising up a Christian and a God-fearing citizenship.

Our records show the names, conditions, and Sunday School officials of every church in the Conference and our ultimate aim is to deal directly, through the Sunday school roll and otherwise with every child and individual of our Conference constituency. The individual units of the Christian kingdom are the children as they are born into the world for whom loyalty to God, the Church and the World, are responsible.

For the coming year it is the unanimous decision of our Board that we need the services of an active agent in his office and in the field every day in the year. Our needs are wider, but limited resources justify this only. We therefore recommend the re-appointment of Rev. R. P. Neblett, as agent.

We ask the hearty and sympathetic co-operation of the pastors with his great work that his labors may be profitable under God, to the upbuilding of the greatest work of the kingdom of heaven.

We respectfully ask the approval of this action of the Board by the Conference.

Dr. W. O. Harris, of Sumner, Miss., whose real value has been already tested, has been chosen Treasurer of the Board for the coming year.

ORPHANS' HOME.

A meeting was held in Jackson, Miss., January 19th, to canvass the question of a suitable site, in or near the city of Jackson, on which to erect an Orphanage building, to take the place of the one burned on July 11, 1904, at Water Valley, Miss. After canvassing the properties offered, the Board was unanimous in selecting, if available, a plat of ground lying north of Millsaps College, belonging to Major R. W. Millsaps. In discussing the value of the property, and whether it could be purchased, he very kindly stated that it could be secured, provided it was thought the best place for the building. That point being settled in favor of the plat, Major Millsaps donated twenty acres, valued at approximately $20,000.00, in fee simple, to be used and disposed of for the benefit of orphan children, with the understanding that the property shall never be diverted from the original purpose of the donation, and can only be sold after the Directors have given notice for twelve months preceding the sessions of the Mississippi and North Mississippi Conferences and the sale confirmed by at least three-fourths majority of each Conference, and in case of sale, the proceeds must be re-invested for the continuance of the Orphanage work, and not otherwise.

A building committee was appointed, plans adopted, and contract let, for the erection of a building to cost about $35,000.00. Parties who have seen the plan and building, and are in position to judge, pronounce the construction thoroughly good, and the arrangements most convenient. The building was to have been completed by November 1st. Hindrances caused by the quarantine, and failure to get material and workmen, have delayed, till now we will not be able to get in before early spring when we hope to have the building thoroughly equipped and finished for the great work committed to our care.

Rev. Q. A. Oats was elected agent and manager, and took charge on Dec. 15, 1904. His administration has been most satisfactory. The internal management of the Home has been in many respects ideal. The credit for this is largely due to his excellent wife, who has untiringly given her time and attention to the work.

Since our last report, 64 children have been received into the Home, 32 adopted, 30 taken out by guardians, and 4 have died, leaving on November, 23rd, in the Home, 96 children.

We are yet domiciled in Water Valley, at Hamilton College. We desire to express our appreciation to the Trustees of that property for kindly consideration, in granting us the use of the property at a nominal rental.

This financial report covers a period of five months, as at last Annual Conference, report was made up to Conference meeting. We respectfully ask that you appoint successors to Rev. T. H. Dorsey and R. W. Jones, Trustees, whose terms expire this year. Rev. Q. A. Oats has been re-elected Manager and we ask that you appoint him to this work. With an earnest solicitude for the sympathy and prayers of the friends of the orphans of Mississippi, we beg to remain,

Respectfully,

J. H. SHERARD,

For Board of Directors.

FINANCE.

We had before us Rev. J. R. Stewart, Treasurer of the "Superannuates' Endowment Fund," of the M. E. Church, South, who ably presented that worthy cause and requested that we put in operation some plan by which its claims may be brought more directly and forcibly before the people, stimulating if possible a deeper interest, a wider attention and more liberal contributions. Realizing more and more each year, the growing needs of this Fund and having received little or no response from our suggestions to Presiding Elders and pastors in the past, we therefore, recommend that Rev. J. W. Raper, a member of this Board, be directed to attend as far as is practicable, all the District Conferences, during the ensuing year, present this great cause, and, where conditions are favorable, take collections for same, and that Presiding Elders and pastors on these occasions render him such assistance as will secure to his efforts the largest results.

Our Treasurer, Bro. P. T. Callicott, reports on hand, $1,000.00, donated by Rev. W. W. Bott, prior to his death, to the Superannuates Fund of the North Mississippi Conference, to be invested for benefit of present and future claimants upon this Conference. The interest from which is to be collected annually and become a part of the funds distributed each year by the Joint Board to the claimants on this Fund.

There has also come into our hands $100.00, donated by Mr. J. D. Barbee, Jr., to same fund, as an expression of his appreciation of the high esteem in which his now sainted father was always held by this Conference. This donation, the Board thinks it wise to add to the $1,000.00 donated by Rev. W. W. Bott, to be invested and used in same way.

This neat sum of $1,100.00 the Board recommends be placed in the hands of its Chairman, Rev. D. W. Babb, its Secretary, Rev. W. W. Mitchell, its Treasurer, Brother P. T. Callicott, and Brother S. T. Harkey, a member of the Board, as a Committee to invest this sum for the purposes before stated, at the best rate of interest obtainable upon satisfactory security. We further recommend that this fund be known as the North Mississippi Conference Endowment Fund.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee are led to believe this subject is one of the gravest and most vital likely to come before this Conference. It underlies the success of Christianity, and is the sustaining power of civilized government. Without this observance of obedience to the Divine injunction, "Ye shall keep my Sabbaths and reverence my sanctuaries; and" further, "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy," all law and order would soon be done away with; violators would be so emboldened that the sweet influences of the Sabbath would be destroyed and marital relations, the sanctity of the oath, and parental reverence would be undermined. No sort of moral obligations would have any force. The most sacred promise would be of no effect. The spirit of enterprise would be a thing of the past. Moral degradation would become universal—man would be prone to worse than bestial degradation. Indeed, it would be difficult to picture the evil which would follow a total neglect of the observance of the Sabbath day.

It is to be noted that a lax observance of the Sabbath day is invariably followed by loose morals and serious crimes; hence, we cannot be too zealous in the encouragement of the observance of the Sabbath.

We are gratified to have with us at this Conference Dr. Edward Thompson who is the general manager of the Sunday League of America. It is also gratifying that he promises to spend two weeks of the coming year within the bounds of our Conference; we are sure that his impressive addresses will stimulate our people in the observance of the Sabbath.

We submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st. That the "Lord's Day Week" appointed by the Sunday League of America, the first week following Easter, be observed by all of the churches of this Conference where practicable, and that the pastors preach on the observance of the Sabbath during that week.

2nd. That we encourage a large circulation of the American Sunday Rest, a monthly periodical issued by the Sunday League, at 12c per year.

3rd. That we deplore the desecration of the Sabbath by our ministers traveling on that day on railroad trains. We feel that preaching against such practices will be in vain as long as they are guilty themselves.

4th. That we are pained that so many of our members visit post offices and seek the secular newspapers on Sunday.

5th. That we condemn the mercantile traffic carried on on Sunday.

6th. That our Legislature be memorialized to legislate against Sunday excursions and the running of freight trains on Sunday.

May He who gave commands as to the keeping of the Sabbath stir our hearts and inspire us with a zeal which will give guarantee to the keeping this day holy.

J. G. HAMILTON,
for the Committee.

MISSIONS.

The missionary work of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in both the foreign and home fields, has surely given to the Church a clearer and stronger faith in the promise of our Lord, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

Fifty-seven years ago two missionaries and their faithful wives sailed for China to open the work there. After twenty-five years of hard work, they reported four missionaries, three native preachers, seventy-five communicants and a contribution of less than one hundred dollars per annum for all purposes. According to the last annual report, we now have, including the Woman's Board and native preachers and helpers, a working force of more than six hundred, and an actual membership of fifteen thousand, seven hundred and eleven, with nearly an equal number of probationers and mission property valued at more than one million dollars.

Since the great Missionary Conference was held in New Orleans in 1901, the gain in membership and contributions has been greater than at any corresponding period in the history of the Church. Last year twelve Annual Conference, one hundred districts, and more than three thousand pastoral charges paid their assessments in full. The total amount collected by the M. E. Church, South, for foreign missions last year was in round numbers, $600,000.00.

Our success is embarrassing us. We need new churches, better educational equipment and more missionaries. The cry of need from all our mission fields saddens the Church, but we are glad to note that this great need is felt and that wise means are being used to meet it. Many congregations and individuals are supporting missionaries in addition to the regular collection. We rejoice that two congregations in our own Conference—West Point and Greenwood—have each assumed the support of a missionary. We trust this number will be increased during the coming year.

Our home fields are becoming a greater problem each year. Many people are moving from the rural districts to the towns and cities; this weakens charges once prosperous, and also adds to the problems in our chief centers. The cost of living is high, and we need and must have increased contributions for our home missionaries.

Your Board offers the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st. That in view of the fact that so many of our congregations in the foreign fields have no houses of worship, that we call this to the attention of our congregations and urge the collection of special funds for this purpose.

2nd. That we urge the pastors to take the collections for missions as early in the year as practicable.

3rd. That we express our hearty appreciation of the good work done by the Home Mission Society in sending boxes to our Home Missionaries.

4th. That we are glad to have with us during this session of our Conference, Dr. Seth Ward, Assistant Secretary of the Board of Missions, and that we have listened to him with much pleasure and profit.

J. M. BRADLEY, Secretary.

I. Vanderbilt University.

WHEREAS, The North Mississippi Conference was a member of the original union which organized and promoted the Central University of the M. E. Church, South, now Vanderbilt University; and

WHEREAS, The participation of this Conference in said movement could not have been secured upon any other hypothesis than that the University was to be the property of the Church and forever under its control, be it, therefore,

Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference of 1906 to take such action as will perfect this understanding and establish the Church's ownership and control.

Resolved, further, That in the proposed revision or amendment of the Charter of Vanderbilt University, we deem it essential that our active Bishops maintain the relation to the University secured to them under Article 9 in the plan originally drawn up by Bishop McTyeire, which article is as follows: "That the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, be and hereby are requested to act as a Board of Supervisors of the University, or any of its departments, and jointly with the Board of Trust, to elect officers and professors, and prescribe the course of study and the plan of government." And we so memorialize the General Conference.

II. Deposits with the Publishing House.

Resolved, That our Church in all its purely financial operations should adopt those methods which the financial world has stamped with its approval as being the most economic and therefore the most productive of successful results.

Resolved, further, That we hereby memorialize the General Conference to enact such legislation as will place this system in operation.

And to this end we suggest that all of the funds coming into the hands of our General Boards be deposited in the treasury of the Publishing House and that the treasurers of the several boards draw their drafts on the Book Agents instead of on the banks where they now carry their deposits. By this method a large saving in interest would result, for it would only be necessary to borrow money when the funds of all the boards and the House are exhausted and all of the funds of the Church would be available for all purposes at all times.

Whenever it becomes necessary to borrow money the particular board which makes such a transaction necessary would be charged with the interest accruing and the rates of interest that could be obtained on paper with such an array of strength behind it would always be the lowest in the market.

There can be no doubt of the safety of the funds so handled for the "Book Agents of the M. E. Church, South," is a very prosperous corporation and quite as solvent as any bank in the country.

The plan suggested is easily recognized as that of concentration, which is in almost universal practice in the business world.

This would do no violence to our present methods, for instead of having many bank accounts we would deposit with only one—the Publishing House.

It would now be perfectly legitimate for the treasurers of our boards under existing laws to deposit or bank with the House if they chose to do so.

This memorial seeks to make it mandatory.

J. D. BARBEE, JR.,
J. R. BINGHAM.

III. Church Periodicals.

Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference to reduce the number of weekly publications and to increase the quality of those that remain, and to use every possible endeavor to give the widest circulation to our papers.

J. C. PARK,
W. M. YOUNG.

IV. Licensing Preachers.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the licensing of preachers should be transferred from the District to the Quarterly Conference, and we respectfully memorialize the ensuing General Conference to this effect.

J. W. HONNOLL,
JNO. W. BOSWELL.

Amended and adopted.
